GROUP CONDITIONING STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Ladies Conditioning: With a focus on injury prevention, functional and athletic movements, these classes are comprised of dynamic warm ups, agility, cardiovascular, strength, balance and core conditioning movements. Recovery sessions complete the workout with partner flexibility and foam roller myofascial work. Level ③/④

Instructors: Mon, Fri 9:15am & Thurs 6:15am-Sarah Applegarth, Tues 615am -Lisa Rennie

Back to Basics: This moderate intensity program is designed with a focus on training core stability, cardiovascular fitness, balance, flexibility, and functional movements. It is appropriate for individuals of any age who lead an active lifestyle and want to maintain or regain a healthy body. Small class size allows for individual attention and appropriate modifications to suit all levels of fitness. There is a strong focus on correct biomechanics for injury prevention. Level ②/③ Instructor: Deb McCann

The Nooner: "It's worth leaving work for; lunchtime will never look the same again!" This class is a fusion of resistance training, cardio, sports training and an array of new, exciting exercises to keep you challenged. You will never know what to expect in this motivating co-ed workout. Each participant will receive a 15 minute injury screen assessment. Maximum participants 12. Level ③/④

Instructors - Mon & Thurs- Sarah Applegarth, Tues/Wed/Fri- Mark Stovel,

Push Your Pace: This is a specialized conditioning program with a focus on functionality designed to engage as broad a range of mental and physical components from your body as possible. Instructor: Mark Stovel

Mom & Baby Strength & Conditioning: Kinesiologist-directed training programs that will help you get your body back, quickly and safely. This program is aimed at preventing and correcting common postpartum conditions such as core/pelvic floor dysfunction, pelvic instability and postural dysfunction AND it helps you lose the baby weight too! Instructor: Katie Hamilton

Outdoor Adventures: This workout is exactly as it sounds. An adventure through Harbourview park utilizing the unique environment consisting of the boardwalk, The Berm, the trail systems, the Arboretum and the natural hills and fields. You can expect to throw medicine balls, run, lift and move your body in many challenging ways each week. Wear appropriate outdoor attire and be sure to bring along sunscreen and water. Instructors: Tuesday- Jamison Buck, Thursday Sarah Applegarth

YOUTH ATHLETICISM

Performance Training: (14+yrs) Performance Training is a form of functional training to prepare for high level athletic competition. Our philosophy is that athletes need a balanced program with equal parts strength and power, agility and speed, flexibility, recovery, nutrition and energy systems as well as a properly periodized plan. Instructors: Sarah Applegarth, Mark Stovel, Jamison Buck

Train to Train: (11-13yrs) A program geared toward developing athletes to teach the next step in the fundamental movement patterns and introduction to strength training along with jumping technique and cardiovascular work.

Instructor: Jamison Buck

Fit Girl: (Females 11-17yrs) A program with elements of Strength & Conditioning, Yoga, Nutrition, Barre and more. The underlying focus is a positive relationship with your body, self-esteem and confidence. Instructor: Katie Hamilton & Caitlin Hopkins
